

Anti Poverty Network Releases Open Letter to Premier

TORONTO – The '25 in 5 Network for Poverty Reduction' will release a report summarizing what communities want to see in the government's Poverty Reduction Strategy now under development.

Based on recommendations from over 50 community meetings held this summer across Ontario, the report will be attached to an Open Letter to the Premier and delivered to all MPPs.

This report is being released on the 1 year anniversary of the founding of the '25 in 5 Network for Poverty Reduction', and as Liberal MPPs prepare for a Liberal Caucus retreat.
